

20 May 2011

I completed the sale of my four surgery practice in Eastleigh on 31 March 2011. I was surprised how much of a roller coaster of a ride it was going to be. Andy Acton from Frank Taylor and Associates, 'held' my hand throughout the whole process, often exchanging phone calls late at night. After months of negotiating and Due Diligence, a cheque finally landed in my bank account. Andy got me the price that he said he would get me. The solicitor I used was on recommendation from Andy (Alex Hall, mfg solicitors). He was also brilliant and thorough.

I can recommend Frank Taylor and Associates very highly to any prospective seller. Good luck
